

Contact: Lucie Barron, President
Tel. 310.201.0010
Email: lucie@adrservices.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ADR SERVICES, INC. ANNOUNCES KOREAN SPECIALTY PANEL

Heads of UCI School of Law Korea Law Center join ADR Services, Inc. panelists to tackle Korean and Korean-American disputes

LOS ANGELES, CA – ADR Services, Inc., California’s second-largest dispute resolution provider, announces the formation of its Korean Specialty Panel.

Many civil cases filings in Southern California courts involve some Korean element, whether Korean parties, Korean legal issues or business customs. ADR Services, Inc.’s Korean Specialty Panelists know how to addresses these elements in order to bring disputes to quick resolution.

Two prominent figures in Korean law in Southern California, Ryul Kim, Esq. and Hon. Ju Myung Hwang, join ADR Services, Inc. panelists Hon. Harkjoon Paik, Hon. Richard Lyman, Hon. Michael D. Marcus, and Hon. Alexander H. Williams III in forming this panel. Mr. Kim and Judge Hwang are both members of the firm Kim & Kim and Executive Co-Chairs for the “Korea Law Center” at UC Irvine School of Law.

Ryul Kim, Esq. has specialized in US-Korea legal matters since 1984. He has served as mediator, counsel, consultant and expert witness for Korean and Korea-related disputes valued from a few thousand dollars to 9 figures.

Judge Ju Myung Hwang served on the Korean District and Appellate Courts and as Assistant Research Judge on the Supreme Court of Korea, and was responsible for launching the Alternative Dispute Resolution program for the Seoul District Court.

“The economy of Southern California has significant, inextricable ties to Korea via Korean direct investment, Korean businesses, and our substantial and well rooted Korean-American population,” says Lucie Barron, President & CEO of ADR Services, Inc. “ADR Services, Inc. receives significant matters involving local and international Korean businesses, and we believe Mr. Kim and Judge Hwang can help us better serve a vibrant and growing area within dispute resolution.”

ADR Services, Inc. is the fastest growing ADR provider in California with offices in Century City, Downtown Los Angeles, San Francisco, Orange County, San Diego and Las Vegas. For more information, visit www.adrservices.org.

###

If you would like more information about this topic, or would like to schedule an interview with Lucie Barron, please contact Jason Fasi, Marketing Manager at 310.201.0010 or jason@adrservices.org.