

50 Fremont Street
Suite 2110
San Francisco, CA 94105
(415) 772-0900 Tel.
(415) 772-0960 Fax

www.adrservices.org

BRIAN McDONALD, ESQ.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2005 – Present	McDonald & Mannion, San Francisco, California
2002 – Present	Mediator, ADR Services, Inc., San Francisco, California
1975 – 2005	Spolter, McDonald & Mannion, San Francisco, California
1991 – 2002	Mediator, American Arbitration Association, San Francisco, California
1996 – 1998	Adjunct Professor, University of San Francisco School of Law
1973 – 1975	Associate, Hoffman Wrixon & Gin (Tax, Probate, Trust, Business & Personal Injury)
1971 – 1972	Deputy Public Defender

LITIGATION EXPERIENCE

- Civil trial practice of family law matters and probate matters (including trusts, guardianships, and conservatorships) and trial team management in negligence, personal injury, business and real estate litigation from 1975 to present.
- Experience includes representing corporate and individual clients, both plaintiff and defendants, in partnership, contract, commercial and personal injury actions.
- Criminal experience in felony jury trials, preliminary hearings, and numerous felony and misdemeanor court trials.

MEDIATION EXPERIENCE

Successfully mediated more than 700 disputes, with a special emphasis on multi-party and highly emotional mediations. Facilitated settlement in numerous cases involving:

- estate planning and probate litigation
- automobile collisions, trucks, bicycle, motorcycle
- premises liability
- negligent care, wrongful death
- sexual abuse
- real estate sales disputes
- dissolution of marriage
- prenuptial agreements
- wrongful eviction
- defective products
- employment contract disputes
- neighborhood disputes

MEDIATION TRAINING

- Victims of Violent Crimes (36 hours, 2002)
- PEER Mediation - Conflict Management (24 hours, 2000)
- First District Court of Appeals (20 hours, 2000)
- Academy of Family Mediators (Chicago, 1999)
- REDRESS Training - United States Postal Service (1998)
- Resourceful Mediation - Advanced Mediation Skills (20 hours, 1995)
- Mastering Conflict Resolution (40 hours, 1994)
- Northern California Mediation Center (40 hours, 1992)
- American Arbitration Association (1989)
- Numerous other four to eight hours training programs (1989-2006)

MEDIATION TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Brian has trained hundreds of mediators, both at the trial court level and at the First District Court of Appeals, including several 36 hour trainings.

EDUCATION

- University of Southern California, B.S., 1967
- University of San Francisco School of Law, J.D., 1970 (McAuliffe Honor Society; American Jurisprudence Awards in Contracts, Property, Civil Procedure, Taxation, and Tax Seminar; Prentice Hall Award Recipient in Corporation and Estate and Gift Tax)
- Golden Gate University School of Law, 10 units towards Masters in Tax Law, 1988-1989

BAR MEMBERSHIPS & AFFILIATIONS

- Supreme Court of the United States
- Supreme Court of California
- U.S. District Court, Northern and Central California Districts
- San Francisco Domestic Relations Court (Settlement Judge Pro-Tem, 1981-2001)
- Sustaining Member, American Arbitration Association
- Founding Member Family Law Panel, AAA Center for Mediation
- Member, Insurance and Commercial Panels, AAA Center for Mediation, 1992 - 2002
- Certified Family Law Specialist, 1981 - present

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- Bar Association of San Francisco
- Consumer Attorneys of California
- Western Trial Lawyers Association
- Association of Certified Family Law Specialists
- San Francisco Trial Lawyers Association
- Mediation Society of San Francisco Bay Area
- Martindale Hubbell Rating - "AV"
- Super Lawyer Selection Northern California
 - Family Law, 2004-present
 - Alternative Dispute Resolution, 2005-present